■ PREPARING TO SELL YOUR HOME

MEET WITH YOUR AGENT

Your agent can save you a lot of time and energy by guiding you though the pre-listing phase. They are there to serve you and help you decide if listing your home is the right option.

PRE-QUALIFY TO BUY

Get pre-qualified to buy your next home before putting your current one on the market. Working with a reputable mortgage professional will help you understand what you need to net from your current home and achieve your goals for the next one.

PRICE CORRECTLY

Listing your home at the proper market value is critical to selling within a reasonable time frame. Be cautious of making decisions based on valuations online. Instead use your agents knowledge of the local area as a resource.

PRE-INSPECT

Home inspections are often where a home sale can go wrong. Material defects may need to be repaired prior to a buyer purchasing the home. Determine these potential fixes before you list, instead of during the negotiation process.

DE-CLUTTER

If your house is cluttered or filled with personal mementos, it's more difficult for a potential buyer to picture themselves living there. Placing large pieces of furniture or family photos in storage is worth the effort to help your home sell quicker.

PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY

The modern-day home search usually starts online and first impressions are very important. Make sure your real estate agent used a professional photographer in order to show your home in the best light.

TIPS FOR STAGING YOUR HOME

DECLUTTER & ORGANIZE

- Time to purge all those old clothes! Donate or trash any old items you don't use anymore.
- Clear off surfaces such as, kitchen countertops, nightstands, coffee tables, dressers, etc.
- Align items in your bathroom and kitchen cabinets.
- Organize your closet! A good rule of thumb you should be able to fit two fingers in between each hanger.

UNPERSONALIZE

- It may be hard to do, but removing pictures and other items specific to your family will give your home a clean slate.
- Remove or replace built-in items that you plan to take with you.

CLEAN INSIDE & SPRUCE OUTSIDE

- Deep clean your home! Vacuum, wax wood floors and steam your carpets.
- Dust those hard to reach areas, as well as furniture and any light fixtures.
- Consider re-caulking around the tub and sink and polish the metals.
- Clean your windows and pressure wash the exterior.

REPAIR

- Have any lime green walls? It's time to paint those loud colored rooms a neutral color.
- Address any creaking doors, drawers that jam and fix any leaky faucets.

THE SELLER'S ROAD MAP

INSPECTION

The buyer will usually perform a physical inspection of the home. They may even ask you to make certain repairs. Your agent will explain all of your options regarding the inspection.

STRATEGIC PRICING As difficult as it may be, it's

As difficult as it may be, it's important to review the market analysis and consider your home price objectively.

CLOSING

This is the transfer of funds and ownership. Depending on when the buyer moves into the home you will need to be all packed up and ready to move.

MEET WITH A REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL

There's no commitment required on your part for the initial meeting. It will be educational and help you identify your next steps.

FINAL DETAILS

While under contract, the buyer will work with their mortgage provider to finalize the loan and perform other due diligence.

ESTABLISH A PRICE

Your agent will provde a market analysis which will help you set an asking price.

UNDER CONTRACT

At this point, you and the buyer have agreed to all of the terms of the offer and both parties have signed the agreements.

CONGRATULATIONS!

YOU'VE SUCCESSFULLY SOLD YOUR HOME!

PREPARE YOUR HOME

View your home through the eyes of the buyer and ask yourself what you'd expect. Your agent will offer some useful suggestions.

OFFERS AND NEGOTIATION

If everything goes well, a buyer (and most often the agent who presents them) will present your agent with an offer.

LIST IT FOR SALE

When everything is in place your agent will put your home on the open market. It's critical you make it as easy as possible for potential buyers to view your home.

CHOOSING AN OFFER

Your agent will present the benefits and risks of each offer. You will have the opportunity to either accept or counter any offer based on its merits.

SHOWINGS

Potential buyers may ask to see your home on short notice. It's best if you can accommodate these requests, you never want to miss a potential sale.

UNDERSTANDING ESCROW

WHAT IS AN ESCROW?

Escrow is the process of having a neutral party manage the exchange of money for real property. The escrow holder is known as an escrow or settlement officer or agent. The Buyer deposits funds and the Seller deposits a deed with the escrow holder along with all of the other documents required to remove all "contingencies" (conditions and approvals) in the purchase agreement prior to closing.

WHY DO I NEED AN ESCROW?

Whether you are the buyer, seller, lender or borrower, you want the assurance that no funds or property will change hands until ALL of the instructions in the transaction have been followed. The escrow holder has the obligation to safeguard the funds and/or documents while they are in the possession of the escrow holder and to disburse funds and/or convey title only when all provisions of the escrow have been complied with.

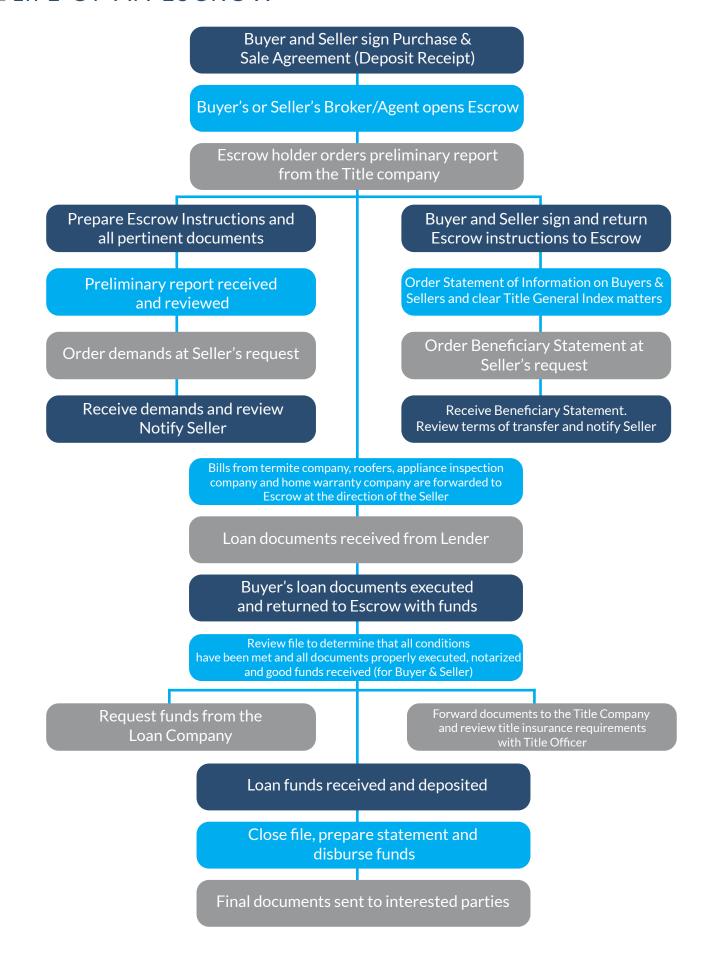

HOW DOES ESCROW WORK?

The principals to the escrow (buyer, seller, lender, borrower), cause escrow instructions, usually in writing, to be created, signed and delivered to the escrow officer. If a broker is involved, they will normally provide the escrow officer with the information necessary for the preparation of your escrow instructions and documents. The escrow officer will process the escrow, in accordance with the escrow instructions and when all conditions required in the escrow can be met or achieved, the escrow will be "closed." Each escrow, although following a similar pattern, will be different in some respects, as it deals with your property and the transaction at hand. The duties of an escrow holder include:

- Following the instructions given by the principals and parties to the transaction in a timely manner
- Handling the funds and/or documents in accordance with instructions
- Paying all bills as authorized
- Responding to authorized requests from the principals
- Closing the escrow only when all terms and conditions have been met
- Distributing the funds in accordance with instructions

LIFE OF AN ESCROW

■ UNDERSTANDING TITLE INSURANCE

The purchase of a home is one of the most expensive and important purchases you will ever make. You and your mortgage lender will want to make sure the property is indeed yours and that no one else has any lien, claim or encumbrance on your property. The following Q&A answers some questions frequently asked about an often misunderstood line of insurance, title insurance.

WHAT IS TITLE INSURANCE?

Title insurance is used by homebuyers and lenders for protection against back taxes, undisclosed liens, legal judgments, forgeries, fraud and a host of other potential legal/financial problems that can arise when purchasing or refinancing property. Title companies perform upon an exhaustive search of the public record to identify and correct liens and encumbrances on property. Most of the title insurance premium goes towards identifying and eliminating these potential problems before the close of escrow. Consumers pay only once for title insurance – there are no monthly premiums –for coverage that lasts as long as they own the property.

WHO NEEDS TITLE INSURANCE?

Both buyers and lenders in real estate transactions need title insurance. Both want to know that the property they are involved with is insured against certain title defects. Title companies provide this needed insurance coverage subject to the terms of the policy. The seller, buyer and lender all benefit from the insurance provided by title companies. Title companies routinely issue two types of policies: An "owner's" policy that insures the homebuyer for as long they own their home; and a "lender's" policy that insures the priority of the lender's security interest over the claims that others may have in the property.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A TITLE SEARCH

Despite the expertise and dedication that goes into a title search, hidden title defects can emerge after completion of a real estate transaction, leaving the buyer without clear title. Title defects can be an unpleasant and costly surprise. Some examples include:

- Previously undisclosed errors with claims against the property
- A forged deed that doesn't transfer title to real property
- Instrument executed under expired or fabricated powers of attorney
- Mistakes made in public record

Title insurance, through a company like First Integrity, is a simple step buyers can take to protect themselves against loss or damage due to potential problems with the title to the property.

LIFE OF A TITLE SEARCH

YOURS OR THEIRS - THE PERSONAL VS. REAL PROPERTY

The distinction between personal property and real property can be the source of difficulties in a real estate transaction. A purchase contract is normally written to include all real property; that is, all aspects of the property that are fastened down or an integral part of the structure. For example, this would include light fixtures, drapery rods, attached mirrors, trees and shrubs in the ground. It would not include potted plants, free-standing refrigerators, washer/dryers, microwaves, bookcases, swag lamps, etc. If there is any uncertainty whether an item is included in the sale or not, it is best to be sure that the particular item is mentioned in the purchase agreement as being included or excluded.
